neglect

ARC Treatment

domestic violence

attachment

self-regulation

compentency

sexual abuse

specifically targets reconnecting to others as a coping strategy, making social support an important treatment outcome to study.

impact of GTI on perceived social support.

when exposed to multiple adverse experiences children are likely to suffer social, emotional, and cognitive impairments.

children who are able to succeed and thrive in toxic or traumatic environments

Resilience

enhance clients strength, self-determination and hope

Samaritan House
Children's Program Evaluation

Grief and Trauma Intervention

Resilience -based interventions

Psychotherapeutic Treatment

Trauma in Children/Adolescents consider the severity and degree of child impairment due to PTSD adopt trauma-focused psychotherapies as first-line treatment integrate interventions for co-morbid conditions into trauma treatment where feasibl