Career Pathways Workshop: Developing an Effective Writing Assignment

Addressing course objective(s) - Which course objective(s) are appropriate for a writing assignment?

Overview of a writing assignment – What might a writing assignment look like? What are some components of the assignment?

Low-stakes activity – How might you adapt one of the 'Writing Tips' to help students complete the writing assignment?

Feedback – How do you build in feedback in the assignment process? How do you make sure students use the feedback?

You did it! You're now one step closer to designing an effective writing assignment.
