

East Asia Graphic Organizer

Read through the list of words associated with East Asia. Decide which words describe aspects of physical or cultural geography. Then, consider categories to associate with the words, such as bodies of water, cities, economic, political, social ideas.

Your challenge is to create a graphic organizer using as many words as possible and up to five categories.

archipelago	dynasties	intensive agriculture	shipping magnates electronics industry	automobiles	Tokyo	developed economy
geisha	Confuciansim	Shintoism	Green Revolution
Great Wall	terracing	Pacific Ring of Fire	East Sea
Ulan Bator	sushi	Yokohama	typhoons
Hiroshima	Tibet (Xizang)	Beijing	South China Sea
Hokkaido	haiku	alluvial soils	Dali Lama
Hong Kong	Honshu	Three Gorges Dam	Humid subtropical industrialized	rice paddies	Shanghai	DMZ (demilitarized zone)
Kyushu	Mt. Fuji	Shikoku	semiarid
mechanized farming	robotics	Imports resources	Mongolia
petroleum	Gobi	Chiang Jiang (Yangtze)	samarai
Taiwan	loess	double cropping	Shinto tsunamis	coal	Huang He (Yellow)	anime
Mt. Everest	Buddhism	earthquakes	bullet trains
communes	Himalayas	declining population	Silk Road
Seoul	pagoda	Pyongyang	reunification

Choose the type of graphic organizer that best communicates your categorization. Add additional shapes as needed.

