Journal Entry 1

I always have a problem with French at the beginning of the semester, so I am not that upset I'm not grasping it. It is a little frustrating that I don't know what I'm listening to/reading majority of the time. The little bit of words I know aren't enough to draw context clues. I find myself translating the page. I finally figured out how qui + que works and how to form a sentence with it, surprisingly. Usually, I would understand certain sections but can't use it in a sentence. I more than likely will not do good on the first test, but I will do much better next test.
