Dear whomever this may concern,

I am writing to express my keen interest in a career with your company. As a dedicated and motivated individual with a strong passion for marine life and other subject within biology, I am eager to contribute my skills and knowledge to support company's goals and initiatives while advancing my learning in this field. Throughout my academic journey, I have consistently excelled in courses related to biology and marine biology. My coursework has provided me with a solid foundation in ichthyology, invertebrate zoology, and oceanography, as well as a broad understanding of marine conservation efforts.

Beyond my technical and academic skills, I am highly dependable and responsible individual, known of my strong work ethic and commitment to meeting deadlines. I am confident that my reliability and dedication will enable me to excel in providing timely and efficient support to your company's mission

Thank you for considering my application. I am excited about the prospect of contributing to the success with your company and would be honored to discuss my potential contributions further in an interview.

Sincerely,
Morgan Harrison
