

A. Steganography hide a message inside something else, such as a picture, video, or audio file, so that other people do not even know the message exists. Cryptography, scrambles or encrypts a message so that people can see there is a message, but they cannot read it without the correct key.

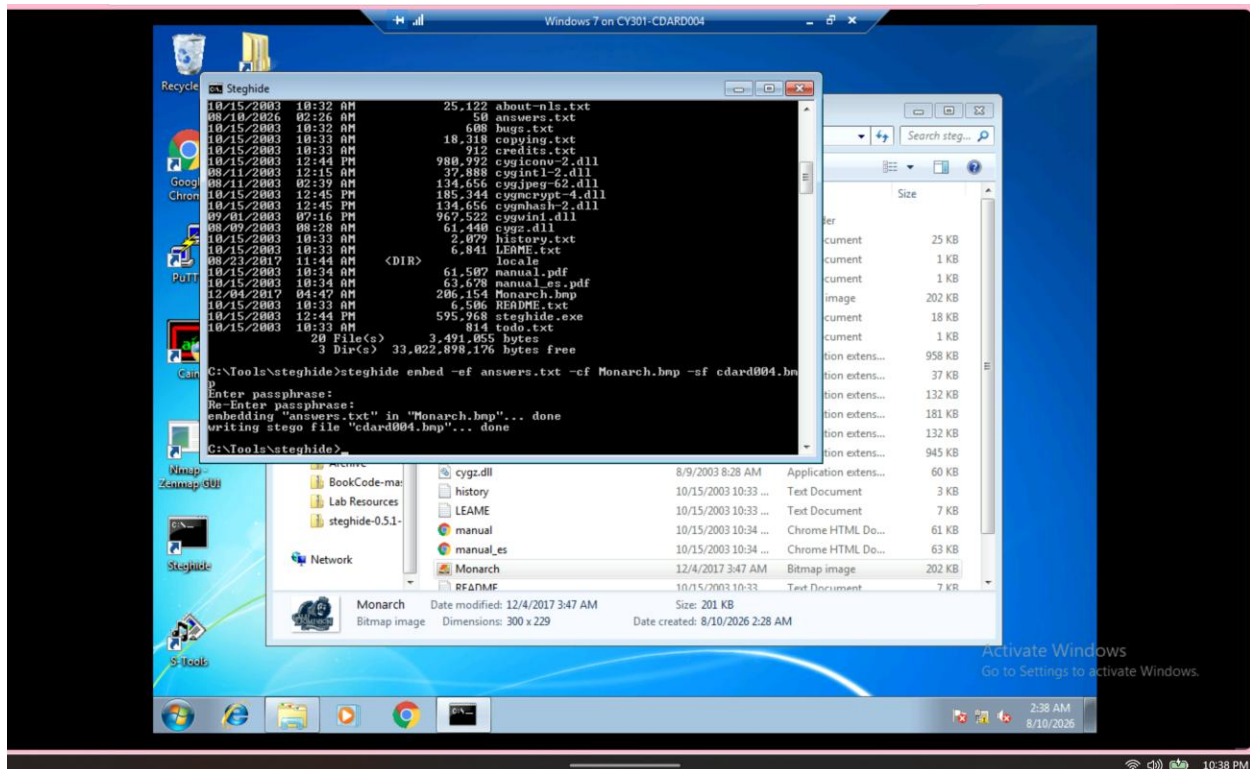

B.

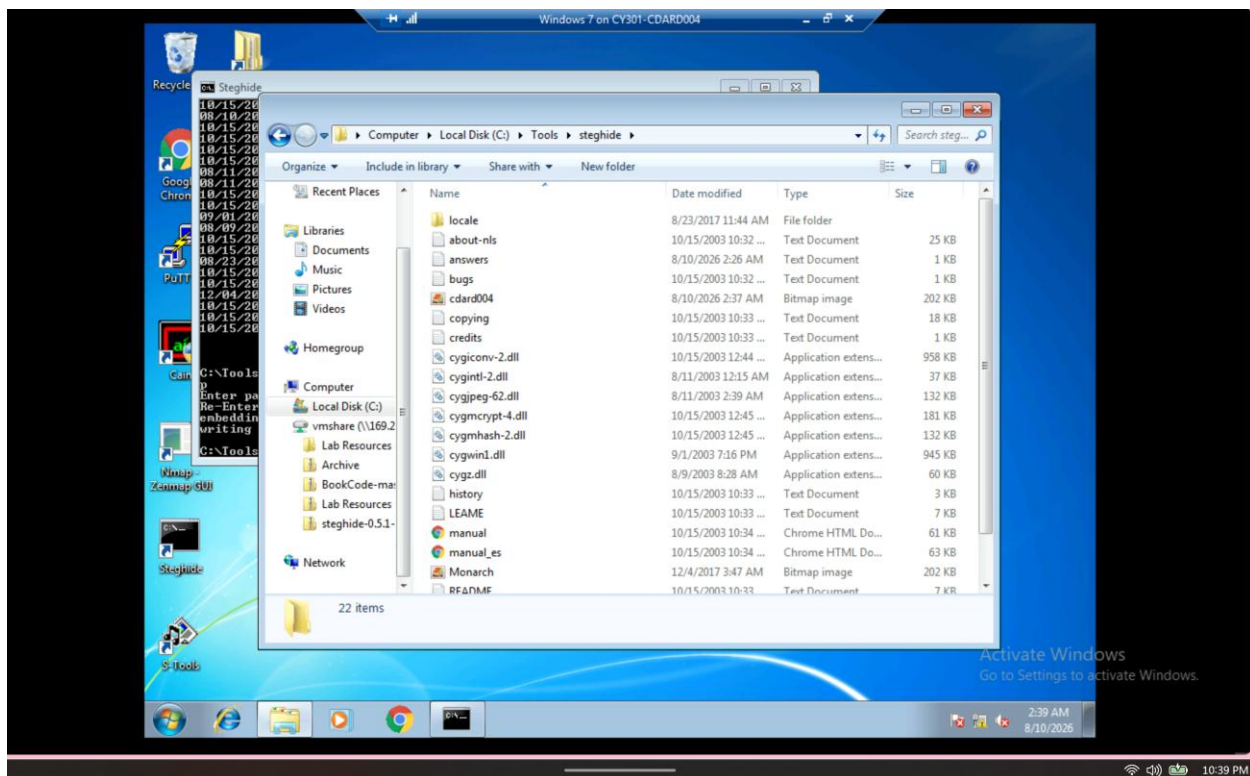

Note created

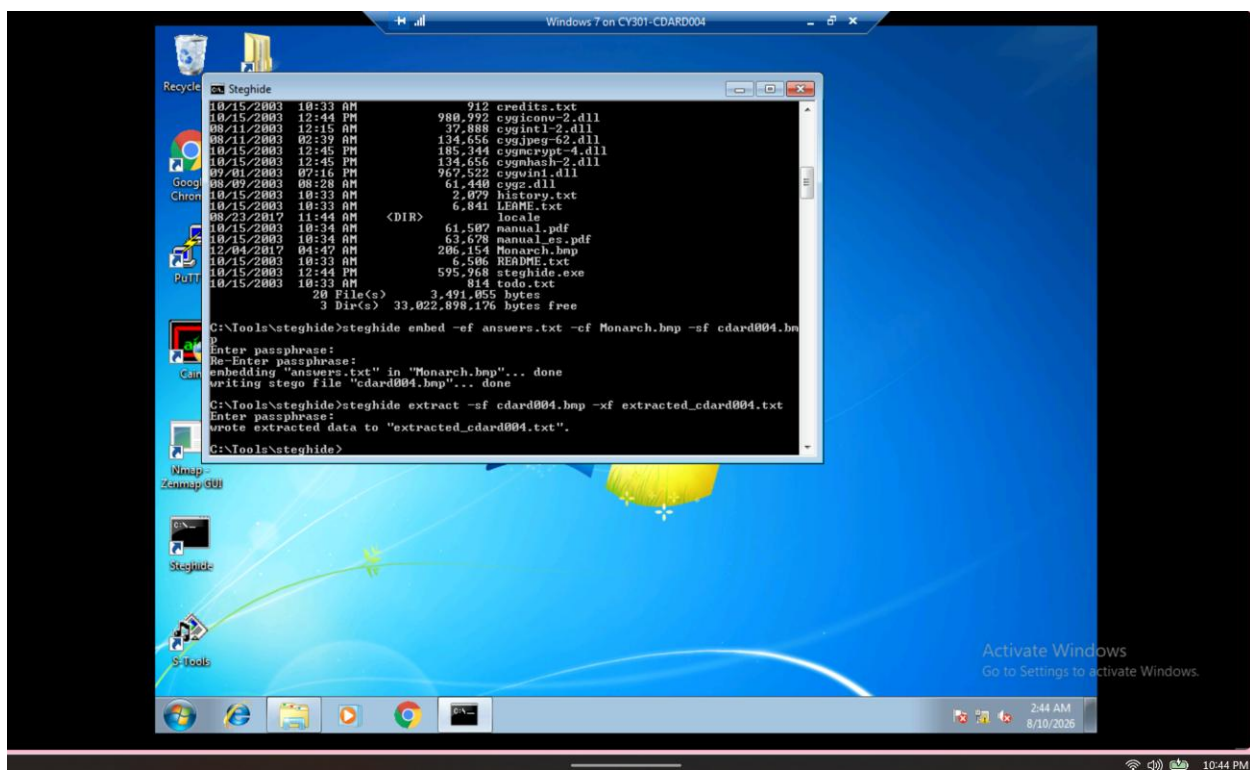

file answers.txt created and in same folder as monarch..bmp file embedded and named with password set.

verified file created

extracted file cdard004

message shown