

Meme #2 -

People are very connected to their cell phones. With life being so busy, people need to remember to take the time to close open tabs on their phones. Any personal or professional data can be stored in the open tabs and needs to be protected by the person who owns the device.