

Fiche d'évaluation: Video

Accuracy 15/15	All of the information provided in the video is correct, as verified by trusted sources of information (these sources must be listed in the citations at the end of the video).
Academic Rigor 15/15	The authors of the video show good grasp of the information they are communicating. There is evidence of depth of research and viewers learn a reasonable amount of new information by watching the video. The information is challenging to peers but not incomprehensible.
Structure and grammar 15/15	Sentence and grammar structures balance simple, compound, and complex sentence types. The speech is clear, focused, and creative all at the same time.
Clarity 15/15	Information is communicated clearly and logically and is disclosed progressively to build on the previous foundation and provide a richer understanding. The organization of the video is coherent and flows from one part to the next into a seamless narrative.
Ability to Engage the Viewer 15/15	The video is interesting to watch. It elicits curiosity and a desire to know more. The video shows evidence of creative and original thinking in presenting the information.
Completeness 25/25	The video meets the following submission criteria <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Submitted by the deadline</li><li>• Submitted in e.portfolio</li><li>• Submitted in the expected file format</li><li>• Complies with the 4–7 minutes length</li><li>• Includes the required components for the movie Minimal requirement. The minimal requirement for passing this assignment is the submission of a file in which there is audio (video may be missing or be of subpar quality). A coherent audio file will allow the work to be assessed and graded, though some points will be lost for completeness.</li></ul>