

Esther Lawal

Phone: 757-325-5231 | Email: lawalesther44@gmail.com

Professional Summary

Motivated and detail-oriented Information Technology professional with strong technical, analytical, and problem-solving skills. Experienced in system support, troubleshooting, and managing multiple IT tasks in fast-paced environments. Adept at communicating technical information clearly and contributing to efficient IT operations. Seeking an opportunity to apply technical knowledge and support organizational technology needs.

Skills

- Python programming basics
- Network security fundamentals
- Vulnerability scanning (Nessus)
- Penetration testing tools (Kali Linux)
- Windows & Linux system administration
- Troubleshooting hardware and software issues
- Network configuration & monitoring
- Documentation & technical reporting
- Database fundamentals (SQL)

Work Experience

IT Support Intern — TechNova Solutions

March 2024 - July 2025

- Assisted in troubleshooting hardware and software issues for employees across the organization. - Supported network configuration, system updates, and routine maintenance tasks. - Helped monitor system performance and documented incidents to improve IT workflow efficiency. - Collaborated with senior technicians on small-scale IT projects, including database updates and user onboarding.

Education

B.S. in Cybersecurity — Old Dominion University

Expected Graduation: 2026

A.S. in Information Systems Technology — Virginia Peninsula Community College

Graduated: May 2023

Career Studies Certificate: Cybersecurity for Enterprise — Virginia Peninsula Community College

Completed: May 2023