Feel free to use/modify/steal any of these assignment sheets and ideas that look useful to you. The Google folder is set to 'view only,' so if you want to make a copy of any document for yourself, just go to 'File → Make a copy' in the menu of the document. This will add a copy of the document to your own Google Drive which you can then edit yourself.

Feel free to reach out to me, Matthew Beale, at mbeale@odu.edu if you have any questions about the assignments or need clarification on how exactly I use them. I have sunset some of the assignments and presentation, but left the documents in the folder for my own reference.
