

Journal Entry 2:

The principles of science relate to cybersecurity because the social sciences help cybersecurity professionals better understand why cyber attacks are happening and also how to stop them.

Understanding the social sciences are a huge part of this career field and bring so much clarity to helping the problem.