The Learning Commons @ Perry Library is a dynamic, collaborative environment jointly operated by the University Libraries, Information Technology Services, and the Center for High Impact Practices. It provides access to campus resources, services and expertise offered by several academic departments in a single location, as well as facilitates student learning through exploration, collaboration, and discussion.

New as of fall semester 2017!

- Single service point on 1st floor (2nd floor Circulation Services moved downstairs for increased access)
- Students can add cash to Monarch Plus for printing during all Learning Commons hours
- Course reserve and Interlibrary Loan materials available during all Learning Commons hours
- No more overdue fines on print books, government documents and media
- New stand-alone scanner – email, USB, Google Drive

Specific Services & Resources Available for ODU students, faculty, and staff:

- Help Desk
  - Open 24/5 during the fall and spring semesters
    (Sun. 9am - Fri. 10pm, Sat. 9am - 10pm)
  - Provides services to enhance academic performance
    - Library reference/research assistance
    - Circulation of books, media, and course reserves
    - Equipment loans – iPads, cameras, camcorders, voice recorders, laptops, headphones, etc.
    - Technology assistance – software & hardware

- 6 Geographic Information Systems workstations
- 6 high-end Windows-based media computers
- Multimedia Innovation Lab
  - 12 high-end iMacs
  - Digital media content creation
    - Adobe Creative Cloud & Final Cut Pro

Services & Resources Available for ODU students:

- Reservable Rooms (1 week in advance, 2 hours/day)
- Collaboration Rooms with flat panel TV, computer, and laptop hookup
  - 6 rooms with 4-6 seats, 1 room with 8-10 seats
- Presentation Room (Rm.1308)
  - Same technology as ODU classrooms
  - Allows students to practice class presentations
  - Green screen for photo or video creation
- Sound Booth (2nd floor loft)
  - 1PC, 1 Mac, Sennheiser headphones
- Group Study Rooms (2nd, 3rd, 4th floors)

Tutoring Services

- Math & Science Resource Center (Rm. 1312)
  - Tutoring for variety of Math courses
  - Tutoring for Psychology 317
  - Tutoring for Praxis Core Math
- Peer Educator Program (Rm.1313)
  - Tutoring for over 70 courses
  - Mentoring
  - Peer Assisted Study Sessions (PASS)
- Writing Center (Rm.1208)
  - Assists students with writing projects for any course

Printing

- .05 per page B/W & .50 per page color
- Printing from your personal laptop available