Video Games

By: Gavin Williams

Why Should You Try Video Games

Entertaining

Relaxing or Competitive

Social Activity

Encourages quick thinking

Immersive

- Video games are simply fun
- Many different types for any kind of person
- Enjoyable with friends or Alone
- Provides entertainment such as:
 - Completing quest
 - Exploring vast fantasy landscapes
 - Slaying monsters
 - Building a house
 - Etc.

Relaxing or Competitive

Sit down and relax

- build a house in Minecraft
- Listen to music while gathering resources
- Create a community space to hang out with your friends
- Or take it up a notch with some competitive play
 - Climb the ranks on your favorite FPS (first person shooter)
 - Train your skills to be better than your opponents
 - Push your self for the fastest times

- Multiplayer games connect players with others around the world
 - Socialize with random people
 - Make friends to play video games together
 - Complete objectives as a team
 - Practice communication and teamwork skills
- And if you don't want to Socialize
 - Play single player games
 - Or just mute everyone

Encourages Quick Thinking

- Many games require the player to make quick decisions:
 - Solve puzzles under time constraints
 - Recognize friend or foe in an instant
 - Reflexively counter an opponent
- Quick thinking is an important skill even outside of computer entertainment

Immersive

- Video games offer an experiences not possible in the real world
- The player can become a hero in the story
- Explore fantasy worlds with extraordinary creatures
- Become someone there not
- Solve mysteries and escape peril
- With new advancements in technology, virtual reality is available to the average consumer

Any Questions?

