

I really enjoyed the readings from this semester. I love learning about different cultures, celebrations, and other things about peoples backgrounds and cultures. This has helped me become a better student because not only am I learning how to speak language but I am also learning the importance of the language and how people experience Spanish differently in their countries and cultures.