

Interpersonal Skills

TalkAbroad Impression #4

For my fourth conversation on TalkAbroad, I chose to speak with David Espinoza again. I chose to speak with David, from Nicaragua, because I think he has helped me so much with my Spanish speaking. Being that our conversation flows smoothly, it is much easier to think less about being nervous and making mistakes and makes me think more of having fun with the Spanish Language. In this conversation, David and I had to discuss different jobs and professions around the world. David has taught me so much about Nicaragua and Spain, where he is currently working, and I am very thankful to have had 4 very insightful conversations with him.