OTHER WORK EXPERIENCE

Government Honors Intern, June 2024 – Present

Government, Washington, D.C.

Job Type: 40 hours per week, Full-Time (Summer); 16 hours per month, Part-Time (Fall/Spring)

Supervisor: Classified

To become a Government Honors Intern, I passed through a highly competitive selection process where I successfully identified my competency in the specific agency's core competencies (leadership, communication, flexibility / adaptability, interpersonal skills, problem solving / judgment, collaboration). Additionally, I was issued a Top Secret/SCI government security clearance based on suitability to have access to sensitive investigative information. As a government Intern, I was assigned to a team where I had the opportunity to observe and participate in work with special agents, intelligence analysts, and other professional support staff. Furthermore, based on my skills I was tasked with assignments to support the work of my team. My experience allowed me to demonstrate and develop my professional oral written communication skills, ability to problem-solve to meet deadlines, and collaborate and liaise effectively in a professional work environment.

ADDITIONAL

Member of the Omicron Iota Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Incorporated, December 2023 – Present

As a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Incorporated, the main objective is upholding the principles of Brotherhood, Scholarship, and Service while leaving a forever lasting impact on Old Dominion University's campus and the communities surrounding it.

Vice President of the Omicron Iota Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Incorporated, April 2024 – May 2025

As Vice President of the Omicron Iota Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Incorporated, I carried the duties of being the president's right hand man when coming to chapter meetings and duties. Duties included carrying out meetings the President is unable to attend, ensuring executive board members are completing their tasks, and that the chapter is following the laws of the fraternity and those of the National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC).

Director of Community Services for the National Pan-Hellenic Council at ODU, December 2023 – December 2024

Tasked with organizing community service projects that involve all organizations within Old Dominion University's NPHC.

Chief Event Director for Voter Innovation and Civic Engagement, March 2024 – October 2024

Managed all events that come within the organization. Tasks include putting together times, dates, costs and finding the motivation for an event.

Social Event Coordinator for King In You, March 2024 – October 2024

In this role I would use personal judgment skills and creativity to create social events for the organization. The goal is to create events that will attract students to engage with the organization's members and said event is aligned with the needs, motive and statement of King In You.
