

k. I spent about 3 hours on this test, most of it on COMSOL struggles. I spent time skipping through lecture material to help me identify a solution which took time. I also spent more hours reviewing the material this past week which made me more confident in my calculations. I would spend more time on COMSOL practice problems since that was my struggle.