

- h. I have not personally had to do any of these calculations.
- i. I have improved by identifying the methods required even though it's still not perfect. I still need to improve on COMSOL reports.
- j. This course is directly related to my job in HVAC.
- k. I spent 4 hours on the test and most of that was used to review course content and think through the necessary steps for solving the problem.