

Taking Spanish online was definitely challenging at times. People speak many forms of Spanish, and I had to relearn what my dad had taught me to learn it another way and improve my. Improvement is always a good thing! Asking for review before my submissions of work and going back to spanish 101 really helped improve my grades! An example of my composition 3 and my last entrevista with my partner was part of my best and improved work!