

Questions:

1. What is your role?
2. What population and/or age group are needing your services?
3. What type of services are offered to the GED participant?
4. What is the average rate of completion?
5. How do you measure the success of the program?
6. How many clients fulfill the vision of the GED program at its best?
7. What services offered after receiving the diploma?
8. What partnerships exist with the community as it relates to the GED program?
9. Do you foresee any changes for the GED program, students, and community?
10. What future services or resources are planned to support the GED program or client?