

Some things that came to my mind after watching the cybersecurity analyst video was the fact that I didn't know that all those qualifications were needed. I also paid close attention to the video because that is my future career path so I felt like the video informed me about lots of new things because since I want to be a cybersecurity analyst, I need to truly understand what my job is also my salary and even some good locations for that job.