The ODU's electronics communications policy relates to cybersecurity because it talks briefly about the information technology resources that are used at ODU also it speaks on the electronic communications which means that all data is stored within an electronic messaging system. The information technology resources are a widespread of devices that aren't just limited to computers. Overall, the ODU electronics communication policy seems as if it's very helpful.