

Statement of Research Focus Area

My research focuses on improving dental hygiene education through modern teaching methods, advanced technology, and effective student assessment to better prepare future clinicians. By promoting collaboration across healthcare fields and enhancing learning experiences, my goal is to support student success while improving access to quality oral healthcare.