

An Effective Reflection

I would say my strength is finding the right classmates to help me. A weakness of mine is that I procrastinate. My writing in Spanish hasn't really improved because I don't have my conjugations down. One of my challenges was rolling my R's and I would say that I have gotten better at that.