

1.
 - a. If I am not admitted into my particular major, I am most likely going to change my major. After doing a little research I have found interest in Health Services Administration. Health Services Administration is responsible for planning, directing, and coordinating medical and health services. They can be found in many different areas such as clinics, and specific departments, and/or medical practices for physicians. There is an 18% job growth from 2018-2028. In 2018 the median salary for this career path is $99,730, based on all medical and health services managers.
 - i. This particular field is still in the College of Health Science, however it falls under the category of Health Services Administration, so the advisor would be Jim Bellamy. In office HLTH 3112, phone number 683-6180.
2. I chose this particular plan because I could still work in the hospital setting but not have to go through the stress of nursing.
 - a. The additional classes that I will have to take: English composition, information literacy & research, human creativity, literature, principle of public health, among many more
 - b. I could gain experience by reaching out to various people in my community and ask if I could shadow them.