

Journal 1

1.American houses have small entryways, French houses have a more grand entryway.

American

French

2.American bathrooms have a toilette, French houses have two separate bathrooms one for a toilette and the other for bathtub.

American Bathroom

French Bathroom

3.American houses and apartments are large and french houses/apartments are small.

French Apartment

American Apartment

4. Floor numbers are different in American buildings. The ground floor is already the first floor. In France the rez-de-chaussée is the ground floor or “ground zero.”

5. In most american homes the stair cases are very basic, French style stairs are normally in a spiral.

French

American

Citations

Rosie. French VS. American Homes, 1 Jan. 1970,
frenchvsamericanhomes.blogspot.com/2012/02/french-vs-american-homes.html.

“Spot the Difference: France vs the US.” My French Life™ - Ma Vie Française®, 16 Oct. 2013,
www.myfrenchlife.org/2013/10/16/spot-the-difference-france-vs-the-us/.