

Majesti Cummings
Norfolk, VA
Email : alizana.cummings@gmail.com acumm008@odu.edu

Objective:

Biology major with a concentration in Marine biology, with a strong interest in marine conservation, animal tagging research, and community outreach. Dedicated to increasing representation of African Americans in marine sciences through education, mentorship, and service

Education:

- Old Dominion University (ODU)
 - Bachelor of Science in Marine biology
 - Expected graduation: Spring 2027
 - Current Standing / Classification: Junior
- Tidewater Community College (TCC)
 - Phlebotomy Program
 - Graduated Top 5 of class
- Ola High School
 - High School Diploma, 2019
 -

Professional Experience

- United States Military
US Navy Service Member E4 |2019-2023|
 - Demonstrated leadership, discipline, and teamwork in high responsibility environments
 - Maintained high standards of performance and accountability
 - Awarded Commanding Officer's NAM (Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal)
 - Recognized as Command Sailor of the Month (5x)
 -

Volunteer and Community Engagement

- NAACP Youth Community Outreach
 - Supported youth engagement, advocacy initiatives, and mentorship to the students of renaissance alternative school
- W.I.N Community
 - Breast Cancer awareness : Assisted with outreach events, education efforts, and set up of breast cancer survivor events.
- Good Girl Movement
 - Serving Sundays : Community meal support to the homeless
 - Care Bag Distribution : Assembled and distributed care packages for feminine hygiene products
- BSA (Black Student Alliance)
 - Donated baby supplies to BSA baby clothing and supply drive that supported families in need

Skills

- Marine science foundations and environmental awareness
- Community outreach and public engagement
- Research support and data documentation
- Leadership and team collaboration
- Time management and organizational skills
- Public speaking and advocacy skills
- Attention to detail and compliance with protocols
- Microsoft Word, Powerpoint, and basic data entry