

Question Mark

Follow these guidelines:

END OF A DIRECT QUESTION:

Who started the riot?

Did he ask who started the riot? (The sentence as a whole is a direct question despite the indirect question at the end.)

You started the riot? (A question in the form of a declarative statement.)

INTERPOLATED QUESTION:

You told me - Did I hear you correctly? - that you started the riot?

MULTIPLE QUESTIONS:

Use a single question mark at the end of the full sentence:

Did you hear him say, "What right have you to ask about the riot?"

Did he plan the riot, employ assistants, and give the signal to begin?

Or, to cause full stops and throw emphasis on each element, break into separate sentences: Did he plan the riot? Employ assistants? Give the signal to begin?

Examples:

Who ate my french fries? (End of a direct question)

You ate my french fries? (Declarative statement)

You told me - If i'm not mistaken - that you ate my french fries? (Interpolated question)

Did you enjoy the fench fries? Eat them with dipping sauce? Finish them? (Multiple questions)
