

1153 Lexan Avenue
Norfolk, Virginia, 23508
757.621.6290
nancycbogan@gmail.com
<https://sites.wp.odu.edu/mlis-nboga001/>

Nancy Bogan

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

- Experience working with diverse students and learners from early childhood to adulthood
- Skilled in developing and implementing curriculum, including AP and IB
- Responsible for guiding, implementing, and accurately scoring IB assessments
- Seasoned and committed collaborator creating activities, lessons, assessments, and analyzing data in both vertical and grade level teams
- Driven to improve student empowerment and create opportunities for equity and inclusion for all members of the school community

TECHNOLOGY SKILLS

- Skilled in Google, Hyperdocs, Loom, Microsoft, Vimeo, and Zoom.
- Experienced in online presentation tools, such as Prezi, Wakelet, and Pear Deck.
- Experienced with virtual instruction, flipped classrooms, and virtual assessment tools, such as Socratic, Quizziz, Kahoot, etc.
- Knowledgeable of several online gradebook and instructional platforms, including Synergy, Schoology, and Google Classroom.

LICENSURE/CERTIFICATION

- Postgraduate Teaching License (expires June 2023)
- Advanced Placement Language and Composition and International Baccalaureate Program
- American Red Cross First Aid and CPR, expires July 2023
- Crisis Prevention Institute De-Escalation Training, expires February 2023
- Dyslexia Awareness Training, expires February 2023

SKILLS

- Differentiating instruction for diverse learners of multiple grades and developmental stages
- Communicating and collaborating with school personnel, parents, and students
- Analyzing data to drive instruction, reflecting on teaching practices, and assessing student and school needs

EXPERIENCE

Oscar F. Smith High School, Chesapeake, VA – English Teacher

August 2015 – November 2020

- Taught English ranging from grades 9-12, including International Baccalaureate (IB) Senior English, Special Education Inclusion, English Language Learners, and English Foundations

- Collaborated to develop IB curriculum and designed and facilitated grading exercises with vertical IB team to promote understanding of IB commentary rubric and consistency with scoring
- Selected to mentor teachers new to the school and/or the profession
- Served on Faculty Senate to address faculty concerns, suggestions, and school culture

Granby High School, Norfolk, VA – English Teacher

August 2003 – June 2015

- Taught English grades 9–12, including IB Pre Diploma English 9 and 10, Advanced Placement Language, English 9/10 Social Justice
- Taught Norfolk Public Schools Evening School Program, including English 11, English 12, and Adult English Language Education
- Leader of collaborative planning teams, revised and wrote curriculum, including English course with a social justice focus, IB and AP
- Partnered with Spanish teacher to create after school tutoring program for English Language Learner students
- Planned and supervised overseas school trips to Italy
- Chaired Safe and Orderly Schools Committee, a teacher-security-administrator team that successfully worked to address attendance, discipline, and academic issues specific to Granby High School
- Co-Sponsored and Reinstated the Gay-Straight-Alliance Club

EDUCATION

Bachelor's Degree in Secondary English Education – University of New Orleans (GPA 3.38)

December 1999, New Orleans, Louisiana

Master's of Urban Studies – Old Dominion University

December 2007, Norfolk, VA

Concentration: Urban Education

Master's of Library and Information Studies – Old Dominion University

Projected graduation date December 2022, Norfolk, VA

Relevant coursework: Children's Literature Across the Curriculum; Knowledge, Resources and Collections; Management and Leadership in Library and Information Systems; Production of Instructional Materials.

AWARDS

- 1999 Outstanding Young Educator Award (Jefferson Parish, Louisiana)
- 2007 Presidential Citation from the Governor's School for Humanities at the University of
- Voted 2008 Most Outstanding English Teacher
- Voted 2010 Most Outstanding English Teacher and Most Outstanding "All Around Teacher"
- 2011 Outstanding Service Award (Norfolk Public Schools Evening School)
- 2011 Awarded Advanced Placement Fellowship at College of William and Mary
- 2011 Excellence in Holocaust Education (Holocaust Commission of the United Jewish Federation of Tidewater)
- 2012 Inspiration Award (Norfolk Public Schools)