The "fiesta" that drew my attention the most was La Tomatina. This "fiesta" occurs on the last Wednesday of August and is located in Buñol, Valencia, Spain. La Tomatina involves participants throwing tomatoes at each other and getting in tomato fights solely for entertainment. It is extremely unique and I have never heard of anything like this occurring in the United States. Mi fiesta favorita es el 1 de marzo. Se llama Mardi Gras. Although I have never had the chance to experience it in person, I love the culture involved in it. I enjoy the amount of people that go to one place to let loose and have fun. Every year, Mardi Gras occurs on the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday. In 2022, this will be March 1. Mardi Gras includes a huge parade in New Orleans and every one dances, parties, and eats lots of food. I hope to experience this "fiesta" in person soon.
