

Nevaeh Wallace
Arlington, VA
nwall008@odu.edu

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/nevaeh-wallace-654242340/>

EDUCATION

Old Dominion University, Norfolk, VA

Bachelor or Master of Degree Obtained: December 2025

Major or Concentration: Cybersecurity

Minor: Women & Gender Studies

Relevant Courses: Cyber Strategy and Policy, Cyber Law, Linux Systems for Cybersecurity, Digital Forensics, PreCalc, Entrepreneurship in Cybersecurity

RELATED EXPERIENCE

FWDthink, Remote

Cybersecurity Intern

April 2024 - August 2024

- Supported the development of security policies and procedures in compliance with industry standards.
- Collaborated with cross-functional teams to ensure secure implementation of IT projects.
- Took different online courses and learned different systems
- Worked together or individually

Old Dominion University

Mail Center Associate

April 2024 - August 2024

- Mail and Package Handling
- Scan, log, and distribute packages to students, staff, and faculty
- Assist students and staff in retrieving packages and mail
- Verify identification before releasing mail or packages
- Answer questions about shipping procedures, lost mail, or mailbox assignments
- Keep the mailroom clean, organized, and secure

Skills

- Soft Skills
- Strong analytical thinking
- Effective communication
- Team collaboration
- Ethical Mindset
- continuously want to learn
- Hard Skills:
- Knowledge of Windows, Microsoft, and MacOS

Organizations

Women in Cybersecurity (WiCyS)

Member 2024 - Present

- Participated in workshops and seminars focusing on professional development and emerging cybersecurity trends.
- Networked with industry professionals to gain insights into cybersecurity careers.

Objective

Ambitious and detail-oriented cybersecurity major with a minor in Women & Gender Studies, graduating in December 2025 from Old Dominion University. I seek to apply my technical expertise and interdisciplinary perspective to a challenging role in cybersecurity. Open to opportunities requiring travel.