

Journal Entry 11

- Quick problem solving: She mentions most of these jobs require 24/7 response. This means that the applicant needs to be able to handle anything that comes up all day, every day.
- Flexibility: She states the job title is just a title and can span a broad number of job responsibilities. This means that the applicant has to be knowledgeable across a large portion of the cybersecurity field. She also mentions that every company has different needs.
- Literate: She quickly mentions there being a lot of reading that comes with the job. This means not only do you have to be knowledgeable computer wise, but also literacy wise.