

Test 2 homework reflection

For the homework's that went to toward test 3 practice problem solving problems about unsteady state heat transfer. Using the 3 methods we learned in class, lumped heat capacity, the exact solution (one-term approximation) and the semi-infinite body methods. We also learned the basic of using COMSOL for these type of problem as well.