

Recommended Text:

To excel in this course, these additional books may help you:

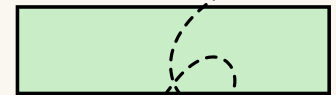

- Fehrenbach, M.J. (2022). Dental Anatomy Coloring Book. Elsevier. (4th Edition). ISBN: 9780323812399
- American Psychological Association. (2020). Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. (7th Edition).

Method of Evaluation:

During the semester, students will be evaluated on achievements of course goals and objectives. These evaluations include projects, assignments, homework, oral presentations, quizzes, and exams. All of these will be graded. A list of graded requirements is below:

LIST OF GRADED ASSESSMENTS:

The following is a list of graded assessments. Due dates can be found in the schedule and will be discussed in class.

1. Critical Thinking Activity Discussion Boards: 8 discussion board to encourage deep analysis of lectures and readings to relate to real-life scenarios.
2. Professional Paper: Research and write 4 page paper on Temporomandibular Joint Disorders.
3. Four Check - In Quizzes: Each will be 10 questions to check your understanding of content
4. Midterm and Final Examination: Comprehensive

Testing Protocols

All Check-In Quizzes, Midterm, and Final examinations will contain criteria from lecture material, assigned readings, and PowerPoints. Canvas Respondus Lockdown Browser with screen monitoring and webcam will be utilized.

- Utilize the link below for how to use:

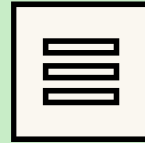

<https://web.respondus.com/wp-content/uploads/2019/08/RLDB-QuickStartGuide-Instructor-Instructure.pdf>

Hardware: Desktop Computer, Laptop, tablet.

Webcam. Software: Chrome Only

Grading Criteria: Assignment Weights:

ASSIGNMENTS	UNDERGRADUATE DNA 108
Check-In Quizzes	10%
Critical Thinking Activities	20%
Professional Paper	20%
Midterm	25%
Final Examination	25%
Total Grade:	100%

Grading Scale:

92-100	A
84-91	B
75-83	C
66-74	D
65-00	F

