

Reflection

GRAMMAR AND SPELLING

DATE	EVIDENCE	REFLECTION
07/03		After taking the Module 1 Test, I got 76.81% from using my knowledge of SER, ESTAR, Gender agreement, and some simple statements. I will need to improve on my skills regarding adjectives.
07/10		After taking the Module 2 Test, I got 48.61% from using my knowledge of greetings and questions. I will need to improve on my skills regarding class subjects and using proper ser/ester forms.
7/17		After taking the Module 3 Test, I got 63.93% from using my knowledge of activities, telling time, and using present tense verbs of TENER and IR. I will need to improve on my skills regarding activities and my usage of TENER and IR.
7/24		After taking the Module 4 Test, I got 60.66% from using my knowledge of likes/dislikes, locations on campus, and the verbs for HABER, SER, ESTAR, and -AR. I will need to improve on my skills regarding locations on campus.
7/31		After taking the Module 5 Test, I got 41% from using my knowledge on admirable personalities, present tense of irregular -er and -ir verbs, and using sabe/conocer. I will need to improve on my skills regarding admirable personalities and irregular -er and -ir verbs.

Michael Hollingsworth
Computer Science Major
SPAN101F
Old Dominion University

Verbal Communication

Regarding my Spanish skills in verbal communication, it is visible through some of my verbal assignments that I performed the assignments well.

Conversation M5 (Flipgrid) Flipgrid	Jul 30 by 11:59pm	100 / 100	✉
--	-------------------	-----------	---

Conversation with your Instructor 1 Conversation with instructor	Jul 8 by 1pm	40 (A)	✉
---	--------------	--------	---

Though, it is important to note that it takes time for me to comprehend verbal sentences, as I can be slow with processing words and phrases. Despite this fact, I understood a lot more of the words than I would've done before this course.