

Journal 12 11/11

The first way that this connects to cyber security is it has to deal with online activities. In this they are basically telling us what is expected of us as a student at old dominion university. For an example how we have to access our odu email. Another examples is who has access to the email from the university.