Tiamorria Scott

Tscot053@odu.edu • * • Chesapeake, VA

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Resourceful US Navy Veteran with 10 years of experience operating and troubleshooting mission-critical systems on a nuclear-powered aircraft carrier. Developed expertise in technical problem-solving, performing diagnostics on equipment, and maintaining functional communications to ensure operational readiness. Transitioning to Information technology with strong analytical and technical skills suitable to support reliable IT operations.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Machinist's Mate

US Navy- Norfolk, VA 2015-2025

- Diagnosed mechanical issues and implemented effective solutions to enhance operational efficiency.
- Monitored critical systems to identify potential problems and respond in a timely manner to prevent operational disruptions.
- Adaptable under unforeseen circumstances and proficient in learning new concepts in a timely manner.
- Operated and maintained machinery to ensure optimal performance and safety compliance.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills developed through interactions with diverse clientele in various roles.

SKILLS

- Mechanical and Technical Equipment Troubleshooting
- Leadership and Management
- System Monitoring
- Networking Fundamentals
- Security Clearance: SECRET
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, and PowerPoint)

EDUCATION

High School Diploma- Cedar Grove, Ellenwood, GA 30294

Old Dominion University: No Degree

REFERENCES

Keriyate Lewis- 337-465-

Santavious McCrary- 404-244-*